

NETWORKING OVER NASHVILLE

SPEAKER BIOS

WES GOLDEN

Mayor Wes Golden was recently re-elected to serve a second term as Montgomery County Mayor, following his initial election in August 2022. Wes brings a wealth of experience and a deep commitment to the position. A native of the area, Wes proudly resides in Montgomery County with his wife, Sara, and their children, Nash, Lydia, and Mia. After graduating from Clarksville High School, Wes pursued his education in computer science at Austin Peay State University. His past professional experience reflects a blend of public and private sector expertise and leadership in the field of health and safety.

Rooted in a sense of community responsibility, Wes has dedicated his life to serving the people of Montgomery County. Early on, he volunteered with the Dream Factory and Bikers Who Care, local charitable organizations focused on improving the lives of children. Wes's commitment to service later extended to his roles as a firefighter and EMT, contributing to the safety of Clarksville, Montgomery County residents.

Wes's passion for community service is evident in his involvement with various organizations. Wes, along with his wife Sara and family, are dedicated members of LifePoint Church.

Since becoming County Mayor, Wes has actively worked to amplify the voice and impact of the people of Montgomery County by becoming involved in several state-level organizations. He is the 2nd Vice President for the Association of County Mayors, advocating for the interests of Montgomery County. Additionally, he is a distinguished member of Class X for Leadership Tennessee and one of four leaders to represent Montgomery County in the last decade.

Mayor Golden's commitment to the welfare of military veterans and their families is evident in his appointment to Governor Bill Lee's Tri-Stars and Stripes Council. This platform allows him to contribute to initiatives aimed at enhancing the lives of those who have served our country. He was also appointed to Governor Lee's Solid Waste Task Force, working to find sustainable solutions at the state level.

NETWORKING OVER NASHVILLE

SPEAKER BIOS

Mayor Golden's involvement in these state-level organizations underscores his proactive approach to leadership, working to represent and uplift the interests of Montgomery County within the broader framework of the state of Tennessee.