EMILY WARD

Emily Ward is a media and community leader who believes that strong communities are built by people who are willing to lead, invest, and show up for one another. As General Manager for 5 Star Media Group in Clarksville, Emily leads sales and business development across the company's radio and digital media platforms, working closely with local businesses, community leaders, and organizations to help them grow and make an impact.

Throughout her career, Emily has built her leadership philosophy around people. She believes the most effective leaders are those who recognize the potential in others, create opportunities for their teams to succeed, and use their influence to make a difference beyond the workplace. Her work in media has given her a unique opportunity to connect people and organizations, amplify important stories, and help strengthen the communities she serves.

Since coming to Clarksville, Emily has embraced the opportunity to become part of the community—not simply as a business leader, but as someone who wants to invest in its future. She believes giving back is a responsibility that comes with leadership and that meaningful change happens when businesses, nonprofits, and individuals come together around a shared purpose.

Emily is passionate about using her leadership, relationships, and platform to help create opportunities for others and contribute to a stronger, more connected Clarksville community.
