RANDY DAVIS

Randy Davis, MBA, joined Vanderbilt Clarksville Hospital (VCH), as its first president on February 1, 2026. Prior to joining Vanderbilt Health, Randy served as President and Chief Administrative Officer for Cumberland Medical Center-Covenant Health in Crossville, Tennessee, and prior to that he was the CEO of Northcrest in Springfield, TN. Overall, his healthcare career spans 20 years, working in both not-for-profit and for-profit hospitals.

Randy is originally from a small town outside of Jackson, MS, but he has spent the majority of his life in Nashville, TN. He has his Bachelors of Science in Economics from Vanderbilt University and Masters of Business Administration in Healthcare from Lipscomb University. Randy started his healthcare career as a surgical technician at the University of Alabama-Birmingham Medical Center in 1995.

As an experienced community hospital executive, Randy is focused on local connections, excellent patient care delivery, and an approach of treating all team members, patients, visitors and providers as family.

Randy and his wife Bek live in Clarksville and have two adult children. He also is highly committed to the military members within the area, having served in the United States Army and National Guard. He achieved his airborne qualification and was a parachute rigger, attached to the 20th Special Forces National Guard Group.
